

Special membership opportunity

Free support in a time of uncertainty for Scottish visitor attractions

Take advantage of 2 months of ASVA membership
FOR FREE and gain access to a range of benefits and support we can offer to you and your organisation.

Association of Scottish Visitor Attractions

In light of the extremely challenging circumstances that the Scottish tourism industry is facing, the Association of Scottish Visitor Attractions (ASVA) are keen to reach out to and assist attractions not currently in membership.

We would like there to offer you a special membership opportunity.

Take up temporary membership of ASVA for 2 months FOR FREE, giving you the opportunity to benefit from and access the support we can offer you at this difficult time, as listed to the right.

If you would like to join us or find out more information about our work, please contact ASVA Membership Manager, Helen Henderson, on helen@asva.co.uk

At the end of the 2 months, we will contact you to review the temporary membership.

A

Advocacy

ASVA are the official trade body for the attractions sector in Scotland. We are the recognised voice of the industry and input directly to key decision makers within the Scottish Government, VisitScotland and the Enterprise Agencies. We seek out the views of individual members and raise their concerns with those that can make a difference in the sector.

S

Signposting

To a range of resources and support that is available to you, as a Scottish visitor attraction. You will be able to participate in our webinar programme which features a range of opportunities specifically geared towards the attractions sector.

V

Voice

As part of our larger industry networking group, membership of ASVA gives you a louder voice than you will have on our own. It will also substantially increase your range of industry contacts.

A

Access

Be included in our mailing list and receive our regular industry updates. A KEY resource during these difficult times and hugely valued by our membership.